Ms. Maryam Raza Deputy Director, Pakistan Research Center for a Community with Shared Future (PRCCSF), Islamabad.

No nation in history has witnessed a great triumph similar to China in recent times. The hallmark of China's success is based on robust policies proposed by President Xi Jinping. His far-sightedness and unique conduct of statecraft have made China a superpower country with a huge responsibility to shoulder.

This visionary leader has emerged as a strong leader in the comity of nations due to many reasons. He has demonstrated a distinctive leadership style. From poverty eradication to modernization, from Belt & Road Initiative to Global Development Initiative (GDI), China has left no stone unturned in fostering regionalization and cooperation among states. These projects reflect China's aspirations to achieve new set goals after the 20th National congress of CPC.

A profound analysis of China's historical transformation reveals that the basic motivation behind its progress has been guided by Deng Xiaoping Theory, the 'Theory of Three Represents,' and 'the Scientific Outlook on Development.' The
