CONFERENCES (ORGANIZED& ATTENEDED)

Conference on “Economic Course of a Just Kazakhstan” organized by Embassy of the Republic of Kazakhstan to the Islamic Republic of Pakistan

8th September 2023

On 08 September 2023, a conference was held dedicated to the program of political, economic, and social reforms, as well as the foreign policy activities of Kazakhstan under the leadership of President K. Tokayev of the Republic of Kazakhstan. This conference was organized in the context of the annual Address to the people of Kazakhstan titled "Economic Course of a Just Kazakhstan," which was delivered on September 1, 2023.

The event was attended by representatives from Pakistan's leading media, experts, and academic circles in the capital.

Amb. Dr. Raza Muhammad, President of the Islamabad Policy Research Institute (IPRI), was invited as the guest of honor.

Conference speakers included Brig. Dr. Raashid Wali Janjua, Director of IPRI, Mr. Tazeen Akhtar, founder and editor at "Pakistan in the World," Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram, Executive Director of the Pakistan Research Center Communities with a Shared Future (PRCCSF), and Mr. Irfan Shahzad Takalvi, President of the Eurasian Century Institute (ECI).

In his welcoming speech, Ambassador Y. Kistafin highlighted the key points of the President's Address, particularly emphasizing several priority sectors of Kazakhstan's economy designated by the President of the Republic as priority, including agriculture, mechanical engineering, the military-industrial complex, and the transport and logistics industry. He noted the potential for cooperation with Pakistan in these sectors, taking into account the host country's existing experience and infrastructure.

Ambassador Kistafin especially emphasized the order of the President to develop the international transport corridor “North-South”, within the framework of which the Islamic Republic can and should play an important role by ensuring access to open ocean routes for Kazakhstan and Central Asia through its seaports in Karachi and Gwadar.

The main speaker of the event, Brig. Dr. R.W. Janjua acknowledged Kazakhstan's achievements in implementing political reforms, improving the judicial system, and establishing a balanced system of checks and balances. The speaker emphasized the continued commitment to meritocracy in public administration and the inclusiveness of the political system of Kazakhstan.

Mr. T. Akhtar praised Kazakhstan's initiatives and the state's achievements in "building a unified Kazakh nation." He particularly highlighted innovations in the judicial system and the efforts of President Tokayev in the development of the social sphere, especially in school education.

Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram stated that Kazakhstan's leadership is dedicated to achieving economic self-sufficiency and self-reliance while promoting economic, social, and cultural cooperation. He focused on the progressive development of the IT sector, digitalization, and the fintech industry in Kazakhstan, predicting the emergence of Kazakhstan as a technological hub in Central Asia.

Mr. Takalvi considers it important to implement the initiatives of President K. Tokayev both for Kazakhstan and for the entire Asian region. The speaker emphasized the social orientation of Kazakhstan's new course; the special focus of the state on creating favorable conditions for future generations. The expert gave a positive assessment of the specific timelines outlined by the President for the implementation of the stated initiatives.

The guest of honor, Ambassador Dr. Raza Muhammad, commended Kazakhstan for its constitutional reforms, which serve as an example for countries in the region by creating a balance between state institutions and the civil society. The process of improving the justice system and effective foreign policy were noted in a positive light.

In general, the Pakistani expert community gave a positive assessment of the reforms being carried out in Kazakhstan, and the ambitious vision set out in the President's Address to the People of Kazakhstan. They noted the need to study the Kazakh experience for its possible application in the political agenda of Pakistan.

Commemoration of Remembrance Day (September 27) of Azerbaijan at Islamabad

27th September 2023

On 27th September 2023, Embassy of the Republic of Azerbaijan in Pakistan held a commemoration ceremony to honor Patriotic War martyrs and a book presentation ceremony titled “The History of the Patriotic War – Personality Factor” at the National Library of Pakistan.

Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram, Executive Director, Pakistan Research Center for a Community with Shared Future (PRCCSF) delivered the keynote address and highlighted the significance of this day for not only the Azerbaijani people but also Pakistanis. He stated that this day serves as a remembrance and triumph, commemorating the brave martyrs who sacrificed their lives to liberate ancestral lands from years of Armenian occupation. He also acknowledged the patience and resilience displayed by civilians in the face of the enemy's attacks on civilian buildings and houses. His Excellency Khazar Farhadov, Ambassador of the Republic of Azerbaijan, recounted the history of the conflict and highlighted the country's resilience in the face of nearly 30 years of occupation by Armenia. He pointed out that Armenia had constantly provoked Azerbaijan during this time. He then discussed the critical moment on September 27th when Azerbaijan launched a counter-attack in response to Armenia's attack on military positions and civilian settlements. The country's Armed Forces, led by President Ilham Aliyev, successfully liberated their territories from Armenian occupation, leading to Armenia's surrender. Senator Muhammad Talha Mahmood, Member of the Senate of Pakistan, was also present at the event and paid tribute to the sacrifices of the martyrs and expressed solidarity with the people of Azerbaijan. He also expressed his admiration for the courage and resilience of the people of Azerbaijan, who have not only fought for their independence but have also made great strides in terms of economic development.

The chief guest at the ceremony was Senator Mushahid Hussain Sayed, Chairman of the Senate's Defense Committee, who commended Ambassador Farhadov for his detailed account of the events surrounding the Patriotic War and the decisive role played by the leadership of Azerbaijan in securing victory. The senator also praised the government and people of Azerbaijan for their generosity in hosting refugees from other countries, especially those who were displaced during the recent conflict. H.E Khazar Farhadov, of the Republic of Azerbaijan, presented a copy of the book "The History of the Patriotic War – Personality Factor" to Senator Mushahid Hussain Sayed, Senator Muhammad Talha Mahmood, and Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram, ED, PRCCSF

The ceremony was attended by 56 participants, including leading experts, media personnel, government institutions, and members of the diplomatic corps.

Special Programme dedicated to “Uzeyir Hajibeyli”: Father of Azerbaijan’s

Classic Music at the Planet FM 87.6 Program's 'Eurasian Perspective'

19th September 2023

Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram, Executive Director, Pakistan Research Center for a Community with Shared Future (PRCCSF), Islamabad was invited to a live radio interview at Planet FM 87.6 (the first official English news channel of Radio Pakistan) on the program 'Eurasian Perspective'. The programme was hosted by Ms. Areesha Shafqat. During the discussion, the immense contributions of Uzeyir Hajibeyli, known as the Father of Azerbaijani Classical Music, were highlighted. This renowned composer has gained a special place in the hearts of Azerbaijanis around the world, and his music serves as a source of pride and inspiration. Mr. Khalid provided a detailed insight into Hajibeyli's cultural and musical achievements. The discussion also touched upon the close cultural, historical, and brotherly ties between Pakistan and Azerbaijan. He talked about Hajibeyli's iconic Opera "Leyli and Majnun" from 1908, in which the composer merged Eastern and Western musical traditions, marking a pioneering moment in Azerbaijani music. He also mentioned how Hajibeyli played a crucial role in promoting music in Azerbaijan by establishing the first Azerbaijani musical school in Baku, and by producing the first full-scale musical play, "Yusif and Zuleikha," in 1910.

RESEARCH WORK by PRCCSF

1. Kazakhstan's key Aspirations for Economic Reforms

Published on 6th September 2023

<https://prccsf.com/paper/pdf/Kazakhstans-key-Aspirations-for-Economic-Reforms.pdf>

Kazakhstan is undergoing significant economic and political transformations introduced by the dynamic statesman, President Kassym-Jomrat Tokayev. The vision is guided by a clear aspiration to enhance the nation's economic standing and provide a better future for its citizens. In his national address on September 1, 2023, President Kassym Tokayev unveiled a comprehensive plan for economic reform, paving the way for a new trajectory for the people of Kazakhstan. At the core of Kazakhstan's economic plans is a people-centric approach emphasizing the fair distribution of national wealth and equal opportunities. President Tokayev's leadership is committed to achieving economic self-sufficiency and self-reliance. Country's leadership focuses on economic, social, and cultural cooperation and development, and peace and prosperity in the region are examples for all other countries. Kazakhstan, as well as regional economies, must be competitive so that they can become major participants in global trade. In this way, by connecting this financial centre with modern technology and information systems, the economy will be developed on innovative and modern lines.

2. Promoting Cultural Diversity through Global Civilization Initiative (GCI)

Published on 14th September 2023

<https://prccsf.com/paper/pdf/Promoting-Cultural-Diversity-through-GCI.pdf>

In March 2023, President Xi Jinping proposed the "Global Civilization Initiative" during the CPC Dialogue, a vision that seeks to address the increasingly complex global challenges while promoting mutual understanding, cooperation, and the preservation of diverse world civilizations. This initiative underlines the Chinese leadership's commitment to advocating respect for the diversity of global civilizations, emphasizing equal and inclusive cultural exchanges, and encouraging friendship among peoples of all nations. At its core, the Global Civilization Initiative aims to promote tolerance for the diversity of world civilizations while upholding universal values shared by all human beings.

3. Is China safe for Ethnic or Religious Minorities?

Published on 19th September 2023

<https://prccsf.com/paper/pdf/Minorities-in-China.pdf>

China is a remarkably diverse nation, home to approximately 56 ethnic groups and various religious communities, all enjoying equality, diversity, and freedom and actively contributing to the country's development. The philosophy of "To be harmonious but different" serves as the foundation for the peaceful coexistence of numerous religions and ethnicities within China. Each ethnic group and religious community has its own distinct culture, language, and traditions. This diversity, while a rich aspect of China's identity, ensures social harmony and inclusive development. China's Communist Party leadership emphasizes stability, unity, and economic development as cornerstones of its governance strategy. China is dedicated to encouraging peaceful coexistence among all ethnic groups like one family, protecting freedom of religious belief in accordance with the law, and promoting high-quality economic and social development in line with people's livelihoods

4. China's Vision for Shared Global Security: A New Initiative for a Safer World

Published on 23rd September 2023

<https://prccsf.com/paper/pdf/China's-Vision-for-Shared-Global-Security.pdf>

The 2022 Bo'ao Forum for Asia marked a significant moment in international diplomacy as President Xi Jinping unveiled China's "Global Security Initiative" (GSI). This initiative, which follows the principles of common, cooperative, comprehensive, and sustainable security, underscores China's commitment and vision to respecting the sovereignty and integrity of all nations. This initiative is a pivotal step in aligning China's foreign policy with the vision of shared global security. China has always upheld the principles of the United Nations Charter, which encourages peaceful dialogue and discussion to settle differences and conflicts in order to provide security in both traditional and non-traditional spheres. China additionally takes seriously the legitimate security concerns of all other countries.

5. Majestic Beginning of Bilateral Relations between Ethiopia and Pakistan

Published on 25th September 2023

<https://prccsf.com/paper/pdf/Majestic-Beginning-of-Bilateral-Relations-between-Pakistan-and-Ethiopia.pdf>

Ethiopia, a landlocked country located on the Horn of Africa, enjoys a well-balanced geographical position with Addis Ababa, also known as "New Flower," as its capital situated close to the center of the nation. Ethiopia holds a significant historical legacy as one of the world's oldest nations, with its borders evolving over millennia. Its population is notably diverse, primarily divided along linguistic lines, with approximately 100 languages categorized into four main groups: Semitic, Cushitic, Omotic, and Nilotic. The country's most valuable asset lies in its agricultural land, despite facing challenges like soil erosion and deforestation. Ethiopia's exports are predominantly agricultural, with coffee being a major foreign exchange earner, along with khat, hides, skins, live animals, oilseeds, and gold. Modern manufacturing contributes about one-tenth of Ethiopia's GDP, primarily catering to domestic consumption. Machinery, transport equipment, and chemical products are significant imports, along with food products and fuels.

6. Remembrance Day of Azerbaijan (27 September): Honoring the Martyrs of the Patriotic War

Published on 25th September 2023

<https://prccsf.com/paper/pdf/Remembrance-Day-of-Azerbaijan-27-September.pdf>

Remembrance Day (September 27) holds immense significance in the hearts of all of us. It is a day of remembrance and triumph. On this historic day, commemorate the sacrifices made by Azerbaijani military personnel who have been martyred in the Patriotic War in 2020. On this day, the Armenian Armed Forces initiated a large-scale attack on civilian settlements and military positions near the front line. In response, Azerbaijan launched a swift counter-attack operation to safeguard its territory and civilians. Azerbaijan successfully liberated territories that had been under Armenian occupation for nearly three decades. The victory not only restored territorial integrity and also reaffirmed the principles of sovereignty and justice, promoting regional stability.

China's vision of shared future profound commitment to int'l cooperation, mutual benefit

By Fatima Javed | Gwadar Pro
Sep 27, 2023

CHENGDU, Sept 27 (Gwadar Pro)– China on Tuesday issued a white paper on building a global community of shared future, a grand vision serving as a blueprint for a better world raised by President Xi Jinping in 2013.

The white paper called for efforts to build an open, inclusive, clean and beautiful world that enjoys lasting peace, universal security, and common prosperity, turning people's longing for a better life into reality.

Talking about the upcoming Belt and Road Forum, Khalid Taimur Akram, an expert of Geo Strategic Affairs and advisor on BRI said the upcoming forum serves as a pivotal platform for global stakeholders, including policymakers, scholars, and practitioners, to converge on the multifaceted impacts of CPEC and the broader BRI on economic, social, environmental, and geopolitical dimensions.

“This underscores a commitment to exploring fresh opportunities within BRI, fostering financial service cooperation, and enhancing people-to-people exchanges,” he said.

The expert noted China's role in this initiative extends beyond infrastructure development. Beijing seems to consolidate its position as a global center for finance, shipping, and trade, emphasizing an op
