PHYSICAL EVENTS (ATTENEDED)

Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram, Executive Director, PRCCSF attended National Day of Kazakhstan

24th October 2022

Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram, Executive Director, PRCCSF attended the National Day of Kazakhstan at Islamabad.

Senior Management of PRCCSF participated in 3-day International Conference
“South Asia @ 75: Past, Present and Future” organized by Department of History
& Pakistan Studies, University of the Punjab, Lahore

(26th -28th October 2022)

Department of History & Pakistan Studies, University of the Punjab, Lahore organized 3-day international conference on “South Asia @ 75: Past, Present and Future” from 26th -28th October 2022. Prof. Dr. Mahboob Hussain, Chairman, Department of History & Pakistan Studies, University of the Punjab, Lahore was the Principal Organizer.

Senior PRCCSF Management participated in 3-day International Conference “South Asia @ 75: Past, Present and Future” and presented papers and research.

On day-1 of the international conference, Mr. Khalid Taimur Akam, Executive Director, PRCCSF presented his paper on “Geopolitical Shift in South Asia: Finding Solutions to Common Challenges under Regional Connectivity”. The session was themed “Pakistan-India Relations: Geo-politics and Diplomacy”. He stated that socioeconomic and political dynamics of the regions have changed. The world has entered an era of geo-economics transformation, bringing both challenges and new opportunities. In this aspect, there are many key characteristics formulating a human society. Mr. Akram explained that human society has the ability to adapt over time due to complex issues that undermine economic and social systems. These new developments happened under various significant processes and shifted the focus of countries from geopolitics to geoeconomy. He shared his analysis that the South Asian region is diverse, unique, and populous. In recent times, there have been significant developments in this region. There are many common issues that need joint solutions, i.e., emerging Non-traditional security challenges. He also highlighted recent developments in South Asia and prospects for cooperation with other countries in the context of geo-economic projects, i.e., the Belt & Road Initiative (BRI) and CPEC.

Ms. Maryam Raza, Deputy Director, PRCCSF presented her research paper on “Youth as a National Dividend: Women Empowerment and Human Resource Development”. She discussed about the Human Resource Development (HRD) which is essential for the progress of any country in terms of advanced dynamics of the economy and policy-orientation process. In recent times, the obsolete and dysfunctional principles of economic development are replaced by modern trends and patterns. She explained that the area of employment is changing dramatically. In this aspect, globalization and technology are offering a rationale coherence for upgrading and revising the world’s narratives and policies to keep up with the time. Ms. Raza stated that there are now a variety of HRD techniques that have been developed to perform the relevant tasks based on significant principles. In this aspect, there is a need to empower youth and provide them opportunities that are beneficial for social and human advancement.

On day-2 of the international conference, Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram, Executive Director, PRCCSF chaired a session “National Security, Regional Integration, and Foreign Policy”. The session was moderated by Ms. Maryam Raza, Deputy Director, PRCCSF. During the session, experts and scholars presented their papers and research on different important topics. The session concluded with a detailed discussion and question/answer session. For chairing the session, Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram was also awarded with a shield.

Ms. Maryam Raza, Deputy Director, PRCCSF also moderated an online session “Sociocultural and Economic Development in Punjab”. In the session, experts from India and Pakistan participated and presented their analysis and research papers.

The 3-day conference was successfully organized by Department of History & Pakistan Studies, University of the Punjab, Lahore. It integrated international experts and scholars from all around the world to discuss important topics related to South Asia and provide a way forward to curtail common issues.

Research Work:

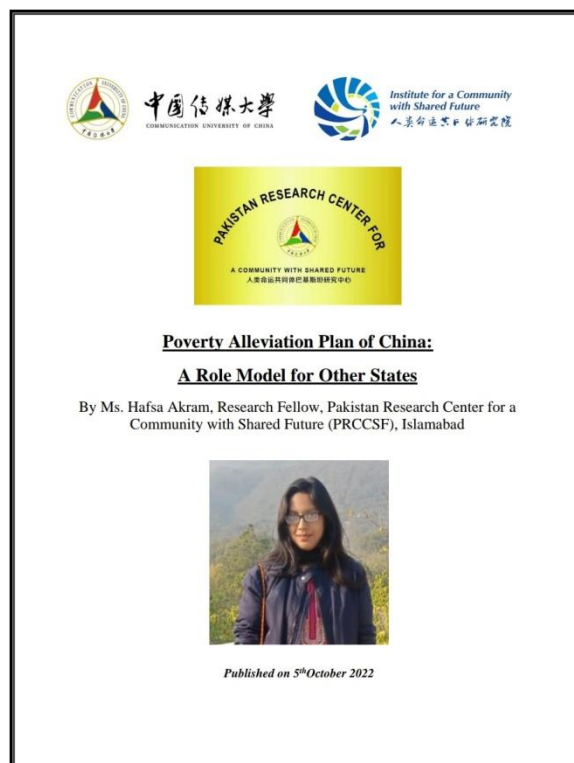

1. “Poverty Alleviation Plan of China: A Role Model for Other States”

Published on 5th October 2022

Website Link: <https://prccsf.com/paper/pdf/Poverty-Alleviation-Plan-of-China.pdf>

The article highlights the China role in the battle against extreme poverty, eliminating overall extreme poverty for the first time in its history of thousands of years and realizing a century-long aspiration of the Chinese people. China's experience with poverty alleviation has proven that development is the most effective way to eradicate poverty and the most reliable path towards a more prosperous life. Rapid economic and social development, a significant increase in comprehensive national strength, an improved social security system, and progress in modernization have supported for its poverty alleviation efforts. Under the leadership of President Xi Jinping, the Chinese people have achieved economic prosperity, national rejuvenation, and a better life.

2. “CICA: A Great Platform for Enhanced Regional Connectivity”

Published on 7th October 2022

Website Link:

The article highlights the role of Conference on Interaction and Confidence Building Measures in Asia (CICA) in advocating the idea that peace and security can be attained by constructive dialogue and mutual cooperation. CICA will play a vital role in combating provocations and intervention in the region and foster the management of inter-state disputes in future

CICA has transformed into a continental platform with a wide geographical representation and a comprehensive agenda. Kazakhstan, on the other hand, has again proved to be an exceptional partner in promoting and enhancing regional security and cooperation among member states.

3. “What’s Special in President Xi Jinping?”

Published on 7th October 2022

Website Link:

The article highlights President Xi Jinping’s prudent policies and robust projects. Under the dynamic leadership of President Xi, China has succeeded in eradicating absolute poverty while meeting the target set out in the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development 10 years ahead of schedule, and contributing to over 70 percent of global poverty reduction. President Xi has also provided public goods globally, which will promote international stability. The paper highlights that the Belt & Road Initiative (BRI) is a perfect example of this policy drive.

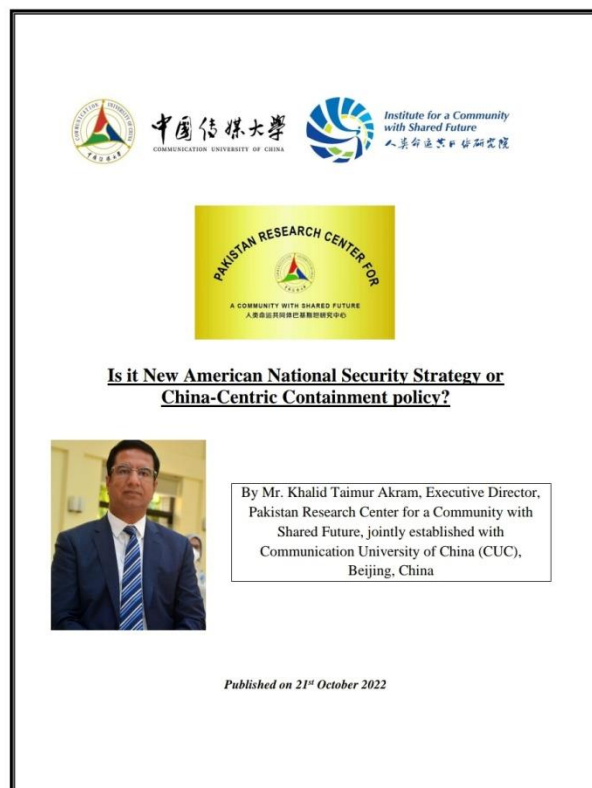

4. Is it New American National Security Strategy or China-Centric Containment policy?

Published on 21st October 2022

Website Link:

<https://prccsf.com/paper/pdf/Is-it-New-American-National-Security-Strategy-China-Centric-Containment-policy.pdf>

The article highlights the flawed policies of US national security strategy October 2022. One should not forget the history of American interference and aggression in other countries. American national security policy has been developed to target China and ignite anti-Chinese sentiments. However, this narrative will not impact Chinese global rise and outreach as the world is aware of the changing socioeconomic and political dimensions in international relation.

Written by: Mr. Khalid Taimur Akram Executive Director, Pakistan Research Center for a Community with Shared Future (PRCCSF), Islamabad.

The recent visit (20th–21st Oct 2022) by the President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev to Turkmenistan will happen during the most crucial time of regional cooperation. The visit will be important for expanding bilateral relations and signing joint accords vis-à-vis economic/trade cooperation.

One of the most important events will be the opening ceremony of the Tashkent park in Ashgabat and the launch of a joint project to create a border trade zone between Uzbekistan and Turkmenistan. I believe that this cooperation will be a great success for stimulating joint linkages in the areas of mutual interests.

Moreover, the series of significant visits by President Mirziyoyev to Central Asian Republics clearly depict his vision of reviving greater regional connectivity and good neighbourhood. He has emerged as a strong and dynamic leader to integrate countries and work for a shared future.
